

Pronouns

1. I bought a book for Shanti. I gave it to her on her birthday.
2. Susan called Minu and Riya yesterday. She invited them to her house for dinner.
3. My mother is very fond of her garden. She waters it herself.
4. Rahul asked me to help him solve the Maths problems. We worked hard and solved all of them easily.
5. Nimish and Rajesh are friends. Very often they go on treks and camps. Ms Shukla accompanies them and the others. She is the sports teacher.
6. My mother bought groceries at the store. The cashier gave her some change.
7. Mother and father are organising a New Year Eve's party. We went to the market to purchase all the things required for the party. After returning from the market they were very tired.
8. This bouquet is his.
9. This umbrella is hers.
10. Those marbles are theirs.
11. This pen is mine and the one on the table is yours.
12. The blue car is theirs. The red one is ours.
13. You see those cars. Mine is the new one. Hers is the old one.
14. I have not finished my assignment yet. Have you finished yours?
15. We can't eat these chocolates. They are his.

16. This is my younger sister.

17. Those were his friends.

18. That is not my bag.

19. Those were the best days of my life.

20. Those are the birds that sing sweetly.